MAN WITH SMALLPOX VISITED WIFE IN ELM CITY HOSPITAL; ONE NEW CASE TODAY'S GRIST

Aaron Pierson Of 511
Church Street Was Host
To Sick Visiting Committee Of His Lodge

Free Clinic Opens at City Hall With Many Children for Treatment—"Avoid Crowds," Pullen Warns.

One new case of smallpox, Aaron Pierson living at 511 Church street, was reported this morning to the department of health and the house was placed under quarantine at once.

The patient had not been under quarantine previously as a suspicious case. The department learned from the patient that he had been in New Haven three days last week and visited his wife at St. Raphael's hospital, and the state department of health was notified at once so that precautions might be taken to prevent an outbreak at the hospital.

Vaccination Clinic Opens

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the free vaccination clinic was opened in city hall, under the supervision of Dr. Robert M. Clark in charge, assisted by a trained nurse.
More than 50 boys and girls were waiting for the opening of the clinic and it is expected that several hundred will be vaccinated before the close of the day, and that before the end of the week the 1,000 mark will be reached.

New Britain sanitarium is now cleared of tuberculous patients and the first smallpox sufferers will be taken to that institution today.

Selecting Hospital Staff

Dr. Richard W. Pullen, superintendent of the health department, is in communication with several doctors and will select one as superintendent of the isolation hospital. The physician will isolate himself as will Mrs. Jennie Bassett, a maid and the janitor now employed at the place and the staff of nurses which will be selected today. All attendants at the hospital were vaccinated today by Dr.
John T. Donnelly.

In several of the local manufacturing plants vaccination is going on this afternoon during the working hours.
The treatment is offered employees in the shop hospitals.

Monday morning there will be circulated in all the schools of the city, copies of the Connecticut vaccination laws, a questionnaire to furnish the department with information as to previous vaccinations, and a slip to be signed by parents consenting to this treatment for their children. All who have not been vaccinated or who have not been successfully vaccinated within five years or who have certificates showing they are physically unfit for the treatment will be required to remain away from school after one week from Tuesday.

Dr. Pullen this afternoon issued a statement advising the public to remain away from crowded meetings, places of amusement, etc., until the epidemic has subsided.

Cannot Trace Early Cases

The health board has been unable to trace the source of a case of the early cases and has reached the conclusion that there has been a walking case of smallpox in the eastern section of the city, the district from which the greater number of cases has been reported. Someone not sufficiently ill to be confined to his home, contracted the disease and has been mingling with the general public spreading the germ, it is reasoned. This would be possible in the case of anyone vaccinated many years ago who still held some immunity and would therefore have a very mild case. The superintendent's warning against crowded places is issued to avoid a repetition of carrying in this way.

Mrs. Jennie Bassett, superintendent of the isolation hospital, today notified even chance for recovery, he was placed under arrest.

MRS. STILLMAN VICTOR IN APPELLATE RULING

Banker Himself Guilty and Not Entitled to Divorce Decree

New York, March 14.—In appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn today unanimously upheld the recent findings of Referee Gleason in favor of Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, wife of James A. Stillman, former head of the National City bank, in defense of her divorce suit.

The court affirmed the findings of the lower court and of the referee that Mr. Stillman was guilty of adultery and not entitled to a judgment of divorce according to the evidence and that Baby Guy Stillman had not been proved illegitimate as the former banker had alleged.

The findings of the lower court and referee "as to the innocence of Mrs.
Stillman are immaterial and unnecessary," today's decision declared and were ordered stricken out.

"The judgment in this respect does not depend upon a finding that the adult defendant (Mrs. Stillman) was innocent of wrongdoing, nor is such a finding necessary to support it," the appellate division held. "A finding to the contrary would not change the findings of the court and referee as to the innocence of the adult defendant are immaterial and unnecessary, and are therefore stricken out.
The judgment as thus modified, and the order, are unanimously affirmed with costs."

"The findings of the court and referee that the plaintiff (Mr. Stillman) was guilty of adultery and not entitled to a judgment of divorce are amply supported by the evidence," the decision continued. "In fact, it is undisputed and hence these findings are affirmed."

"So far as the question of the legitimacy of the child is concerned, the court also affirms the findings of the court and referee, our conclusion affirming that the evidence fails to establish his illegitimacy."

John P. Brennan, attorney for Mrs.
Stillman, declared that he would make no move until he had received a copy of the decision. "It's a good decision," was his only comment.

Isaac N. Mills, associated with Brennan as counsel for Mrs. Stillman, asserted the decision established and affirmed the rights of Mrs. Stillman, and entitled her to the support that was to be expected from such a man in such a position in life.

"If Mrs. Stillman does not sue for divorce and Mr. Stillman does not refuse to support her, there will be no further litigation," he said.

Both attorneys refused to divulge Mrs. Stillman's whereabouts and declared they did not know if she would leave the city or return. Mrs. Stillman decision vindicated his client and expressed the opinion that it left no ground for appeal.

BOMBERS ARE CAUGHT

Los Angeles Man Admits He Wanted to Blow Up Wife and Obtain Her Fortune—Expert Aided Him.

Los Angeles, March 14.—Joseph J.
Lanzetta, 52, businessman, and Frederick Tate, explosive expert, were arrested last night when caught placing a bomb under the building occupied by Mrs. Josephine Lanzetta, Mrs. Dorothy Reutler, her mother, and the latter's son, Edward G. Reutler. Lan-zett confessed, according to officers, that he had arranged the bombing, hoping to dispose of his estranged wife and obtain her $50,000 estate and the $150,000 fortune of her mother and brother.

Eats Plaster of Paris Pancakes, Yet He Lives

Cornell, N. Y., March 14.—Plaster of Paris pancakes was the menu Samuel L. Smith, contractor, had for breakfast a day or two ago, and although he ate four, he suffered no ill effects, apparently. Mrs. Smith, in mixing the batter, dipped into a bag of plaster, and the mistake was not discovered until Mrs. Smith's daughter noticed the peculiar taste. By this time Mr. Smith had devoured four.
He was about today in his usual health.

12 Election Inspectors Are Indicted in New York

Nantucket, Mass., March 14.—A guardmen near shore off the west end of the island today. They also found a part of a schooner's stern with a hawser attached. No bodies have been found and there is no trace of lifeboats.

GRAND JURY FLAYS ECLECTIC MEDICAL BOARD AND DOCTORS

Also Bitterly Arraigns Certain So-Called Medical Schools—Makes Preliminary Report to Superior Court.

Hartford, March 14.—It is difficult "to reconcile the action of the Connecticut eclectic society or the state board of eclectic examiners with honesty or intelligence" in permitting the graduates of condemned medical colleges to obtain licenses to practice medicine in this state, said the president of the special grand jury which has been investigating the quack-ridden condition of the state for the past five months. The presentation was made to the superior court this noon by Foreman Benedict M. Holden of the jury.

In League With Frauds
The presentation of charges that members of the state eclectic examining board have been in league with officials of certain fraudulent medical schools to such an extent that Connecticut has been made a dumping ground for quacks. The presentation says that the grand jury finds evidence of fraud and deceit on the part of these fake doctors "readily obtainable and susceptible of presentation in court in the event that judicial proceedings should make a proper presentation of evidence in a court in Connecticut either advisable or necessary."

Open To All Cults.

"Conscientious," the presentation says, "occupies the unique position of offering a field for exploitation to persons practicing various cults and questionable theories not permitted anywhere else in the United States."

The St. Louis College.

Concerning the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons the presentation says in part:
"The examination, so far as it affects the college and its graduates, leads us to the conclusion that persons who attended it did so for the

Will Leave Soon

San Francisco, March 14.—Chief Justice Curtis D. Wilbur of the California supreme court today prepared to lay aside the duties of his office and take up the weightier duties of the post of secretary of the navy.

Tendered the office by telegraph last night, Justice Wilbur accepted the portfolio surrendered by Edwin Denby last Monday. He will leave for Washington as soon as his appointment is confirmed by the senate.

President Coolidge's summons to the California jurist was terse.
"You seem to be the man I need for the navy," the president telegraphed.
"Am drafting you today. Please answer."

Accepts In 10 Minutes

Within 10 minutes Justice Wilbur replied:
"I will accept the appointment and will come to Washington as soon after confirmation as possible."

He announced that he would not resign from the California supreme court until he had been sworn in as first class in every way," he said.

The new cabinet appointee was he-

MEANS CONFESSES RECEIVING GRAFT OF HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR SMITH, FRIEND OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

VOTE ON BONUS BILL IS SET FOR TUESDAY

One Day for Debate and Two-Thirds Vote Will Carry Measure

Washington, March 14.—The house will vote next Tuesday on the soldiers' bonus bill under an agreement reached today.

Speaker Gillett announced he would suspend a motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill approved by the means committee.

The two-thirds vote required for the bonus bill is set for Tuesday.
Representative Garrett, the democratic leader, protested against action on the bill under rules which would cut off amendments and representative Huddleston, Alabama, who favors a cash bonus declared the suspension program was an effort to "run down the throats of house members," the committee insurance policy plan.

LONDON CONCERT HEARD BY MANY IN THIS STATE

New Haven, March 14.—Many radio enthusiasts here and elsewhere in the state heard William Marconi talk and the concert broadcast from London last night.

Reports received later in the day from various cities east of the Mississippi said that the Savoy concert in London, had been heard clearly for a period of from fifteen to twenty minutes.

W. J. Speller of Long Island City attached a loud speaker to his set and entertained several friends with the music which he said he heard perfectly.

More than 500 of the Savoy's guests were dancing in the ballroom while the concert was in progress. Some of the Americans present spoke into the microphones, but whether any of their messages to friends in this country were received had not been reported to the receiving station here up to noon today.

Called to Capital

Sudden Summons For Vanderlip

Causes Him To Cancel Speaking Engagement in Leonia, N. J.

New York, March 14.—Frank A.
Vanderlip today cancelled speaking engagements for tonight and tomorrow and took an afternoon train for Washington in response to what his secretary said had been "a sudden call."

The secretary described the matter as of "great importance" but would not divulge its nature.

Mr. Vanderlip, who was to make an address in Leonia, N. J., this evening, recently testified before the senate oil committee in Washington regarding rumors he said were current concerning the sale of the Marconi Star.

The banker's secretary said he did not know when Mr. Vanderlip would return from the capital.

COOLIDGE IS WAITING

Harrison Says President Will Out-Daugherty When Ohio Delegates Have Been Chosen.

Washington, March 14.—Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi declared in the senate today that President Coolidge was waiting "until the presidential electoral delegates have been chosen in Ohio to out Attorney General Daugherty from the cabinet."

When Mr. Harrison suggested that Judge Kenyon "might better have been offered the portfolio of attorney general" than the office of secretary of the navy, Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, retorted:
"It is not too late, yet."

The president's offer to Judge Kenyon, Senator Harrison declared, "was a political shot aimed to get the good will of the mass of Judge Kenyon's progressive friends in the northwest."

Two Barges Forfeited to Govt.; Rum Running Craft

New Haven, March 14.—A decision by Judge Thomas of the federal court today forfeits to the government the barges "City of Malden" and "City of Boston" on evidence which had been proven that they were rum runners in Long Island Sound. Both craft were found abandoned here after being used to carry liquor from a vessel off Block Island. Both barges will be sold. The owners of record, according to the court proceedings, were Boston men.

Says Money Was To Stop Govt. Prosecution Of Standard Aircraft Case—Tells of Payments For Noninterference In Prize Fight Pictures—Describes Spying On Mellon, Senators Caraway And LaFollette And Others At Harding's Request.

Washington, March 14.—Another Pandora's box—brimming over with allegations of corruption in the department of justice was opened today before the senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty.

Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, announcing that he expected no quarter and would give none, related an amazing story of collecting money for the late Jess W. Smith, Attorney General Daugherty's "bumper and friend," of intimidations calculated to prevent his testimony and of espionage of senators.

$100,000 Paid As Graft

The most sensational of Means' testimony, if one sensation could be assessed as greater than another, was a charge that he (Means) in February 1922, received in the old Bellevue hotel here in Washington one hundred thousand dollars, from a Japanese representative of the house of Mitsui and Co. which he paid over to Smith and which he said was for the purpose of stopping government prosecution of the Standard Aircraft Co., against which the war department was claiming over-payments aggregating $6,000,000.

Money On Fight Films

On behalf of Smith, Means further alleged he had received large sums of money, which he turned over, and which he said were for the purpose of guaranteeing that there would be no prosecution for transportation and showing of the Carpentier-Dempsey fight films in interstate commerce.

Liquor Permits Paid For

In other instances, Means testified he had received money in connection with "liquor permits."

Harding Ordered Investigation

In all these transactions which he alleged, Means described himself as the "money carrier." Replete with details of his activities, Means told a story alleging that for the information of President Harding through Smith and W. T. Underwood, he had conducted an investigation of Secretary Mellon in connection with liquor permits in New York.

"He slipped through our fingers the first time," Means said, "but we got him."

Ransack La Follette's Office

The office of Senator La Follette, Means testified, had been ransacked by his agents soon after the senator from Wisconsin began agitating investigation of the Teapot Dome scandal in an effort to "find something damning."

Senator Caraway, democrat, of Arkansas, Means further alleged also came under espionage after he began attacking Attorney General Daugherty and Mr. Harding. Senator Dyer of Maryland also a democrat and newly elected, Means testified came under espionage, but Means did not know much about it.

Senators Being Watched

Senator Wheeler, democrat, of Montana, interjected into Means' testimony at that point that he understood five men were "checking up on him in Montana" and Senator Brookhart insurgent republican of Iowa, chairman of the investigation added that he understood that he was being looked after too.

Scalfe Exonerated

A great deal of Means' testimony today turned about the aircraft cases.
He was assisted in his presentation by Captain R. L. Scalfe a former investigator for the department of justice who since he left the department has been agitating congressional investigation of the subject. Means emphasized that he made Scalfe a fully clean bill of health in the affair and did not connect him in any way with the corruption he alleged.

"Scalfe wouldn't know how to collect money," said Means.

Notables See Pictures

The principal films were first shown in Washington, Means testified, at the home of E. B. McLean the publisher and central figure in the Teapot Dome inquiry. President Harding, Secretary Hughes and other notables were there. Means testified consulting his records.

Possibly $50,000 in All

Means went into detail as to how the money was brought to him by messengers in payments on the prize-fight film "deal" saying he had "as much as six or seven thousand dollars" in his hands at one time in that way. He was pressed by Senator Means and other committee members to estimate the aggregate of these "collections."

"Oh, $20,000 or $40,000," he replied. "Maybe $50,000."

As the committee broke up, Senator Ashurst told Means that while he might be under indictment he had "rendered great service to truth."

End Justifies Means

"It's the first time I have seen the end to justify the means," the Senator declared, and the roomful of spectators applauded the pun.

Royle Stinson, divorced wife of Smith, who has furnished all the
